

Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Wiltshire and Swindon

Notification by a Police and Crime Commissioner of Financial and Other Interests

To safeguard the integrity of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Wiltshire and Swindon, declarations of interest are publicly made. This ensures openness and transparency.

All declarations should be made following election to the post and reviewed annually as a matter of course. The Commissioner can update the declarations at any time should his or her circumstances change.

The declarations will be held on a register in the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner and will be made available the OPCC website.
