

FOI – 201

I write in connection with your request for information dated 7th March 2016 concerning parking fines paid by the OPCC.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows:

You wrote:

For each financial year since the position was created how much has the Office of Police and Crime Commissioner had to pay out in fines as a result of parking tickets issued to company cars?

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner has not paid out any money in fines as a result of parking tickets issued to company cars since the position of PCC was created.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.