

FOI - 652

I write in connection with your request for information dated 10th August 2016 concerning transparency requirements.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows:

You wrote:

Please advise what, if any, transparency requirements you require of the police in your area or that you are planning to require. Please include any transparency requirements for the pay, expenses and allowances for the chief constable and other senior officers.

Response

The PCC is required to publish information in accordance with the Elected Local Policing Bodies Order 2011 and the Freedom of Information Act 2000. We publish information on pay and expenses of senior officers here: <http://www.wiltshire-pcc.gov.uk/Transparency/Chief-Officer-pay.aspx>. This information is also published within the statement of accounts, also on our website, here: <http://www.wiltshire-pcc.gov.uk/Business-Documents-and-Policy/Finance-documents.aspx>

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.
