

FOI – 053

I write in connection with your request for information dated 19th January 2017 concerning the College of Policing consultation on policing education and qualifications framework.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner.

Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows:

You wrote:

Could you please send me your Office of Police and Crime Commissioner's response to the College of Policing's consultation on the Policing Education and Qualifications Framework (aka degrees for police officers)? The consultation period ran from 2 February to 29 March 2016.

Response

No information held. The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Wiltshire did not provide a response to this consultation.

I am satisfied that all the relevant information has been passed to me, and been considered in the light of your request, within the time constraints applicable under the legislation.