

I write in connection with your email request for information dated 7th April 2018 regarding communication regarding the closure of the police station in Marlborough.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner. Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows:

You wrote:

Please could you send me copies by email of any and all communications email and paper - both internal and those to/from external bodies - concerning the future of the soon-to-be closed police station in Marlborough.

Response:

I have attached email correspondence relating to this request.

I would also like to direct you to the Police and Crime Commissioner's Estates Strategy for 2017-2021 and copies of Commissioner's Monitoring Board minutes particularly those dated 3rd July 2017 and 31st July 2017, which would include estates briefings discussed internally relating to this.

These documents can be found on the PCC website:

Estates Strategy 2017-2021 <http://www.wiltshire-pcc.gov.uk/Information-Hub/Estates-Strategy.aspx>

Commissioner's Monitoring Board minutes <http://www.wiltshire-pcc.gov.uk/Information-Hub/Freedom-of-Information/Commissioners-monitoring-board.aspx>

This is a partial response under the following exemptions:

The information you require relating to email correspondence is exempt information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). Information that constitutes personal data is exempt under section 40(1) of the FOIA if it is about the applicant (you in this case); or section 40(2) if it is about a third party and disclosure to the public would contravene the data protection principles set out in schedule 1 of the Data Protection Act 1998.
