

2018-506

I write in connection with your email request for information dated 10th June 2018 regarding records of evidence held.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner. Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows:

You wrote:

Please send to me any record of information that relates to the formulation and execution of U.S. Foreign Policy and the administration and operations of the U.S. Department of State and U.S. Department of Defence which alleges the U.S. Department of State and U.S. Department of Defence committed electoral fraud at the June 23rd 2016, United Kingdom European Union membership referendum and/or the June 8th 2017, United Kingdom general election. If your response fails to reach the email address that I have provided then please send your response by post.

Response:

The Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner does not hold any record of evidence that shows the US Department of State or Department of Defence committed electoral fraud at the 23rd June 2016 election and/or the 8th June 2017.