

2018-800

I write in connection with your email request for information dated 11th September 2018 regarding the Westminster Bridge attack.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind as to the identity and motives of the requestor. Any information released as a response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner. Your request for information has now been considered and I am able to respond as follows:

You wrote:

Please send to me all records of information on the news story linked to below which allege, or prove, that the news story linked to below is fraudulent, or factually incorrect, or that Westminster Bridge terror attack incident referenced in the news story linked to below was perpetrated by a United Kingdom state institution, or a state institution of a foreign country.

News story: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-45485404>

I would like the above information to be provided to me as electronic copies, paper copies, audiotape versions, or an opportunity to view.

Response:

Searches of the OPCC show that no such information is held in this office.