APPENDIX “C”

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST & CONFIDENTIALITY

For the purposes of this Agreement the Legal Services Directorate has four clients: The Chief Constable of Avon and Somerset Constabulary, The Chief Constable of Wiltshire Police, the Wiltshire Police Authority and Avon and Somerset Police Authority.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Parties recognise there is the potential for Conflicts of Interest between one or more client. This Appendix sets out how any conflict will be managed under this Agreement in order to provide an audit trail which will stand scrutiny by our clients, our indemnity insurers and/or the Solicitor’s Regulation Authority.

Conflict may arise in any number of situations. These may be best illustrated by the following (non exhaustive) list of examples.

1. An employment tribunal claim is brought alleging sex discrimination which allegedly took place in both Forces naming the Chief Constables of both Forces as respondents.
2. A wrongful arrest claim where the arrest was made by x Police but the claimant was detained by y Police.
3. A Police Property Act application where property is held by both Forces.

It is the professional duty of all lawyers who work for ASPA and CCAS to identify and deal with potential or actual conflicts of interest in accordance with the Solicitors Code of Conduct 2007 or any amendment or variation thereof.

The Solicitors Code of Conduct sets out the principle in Rule 3.01:

Duty not to act:

- 1) You must not act if there is a conflict of interests.
- 2) There is a conflict of interests if:
 - a. You owe, or your firm owes, separate duties to act in the best interests of two or more clients in relation to the same or related matters, and those duties conflict, or there is a significant risk that those duties may conflict; or
 - b. Your duty to act in the best interests of your client in relation to a matter conflicts, or there is a significant risk that it may conflict, with your own interests in relation to that or a related matter.

If any matter arises which might involve a member of staff in a situation where there could be either actual or possible conflict of Interest then it is the duty of the person concerned to report the matter to the Director of Legal Services.

Anyone in the slightest doubt about something which might be regarded as conflict of interest must discuss it with the Director of Legal Services.

If the Director determines an actual or perceived conflict of interest arises she will notify the Chief Executive of WPA immediately. It may be necessary for one or more of the clients to be separately represented.
