Constable's risk management policy and risk management arrangements.
To seek assurance that organisational risks are being managed effectively.
To comment on and monitor the insurance programme, insurance and broker appointment/renewal processes and the arrangements for risk financing.
To seek assurance as to the continuing effectiveness of the Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable's business continuity arrangements.
How the Audit Committee will exercise its independence
All Committee meetings will be held in public
The Committee will have access to all audit reports, plans, accounts, and audit letters.
The Committee can request the Commissioner and / or Chief Constable to attend its next meeting.
If necessary the Committee can have access to the Commissioner and / or Chief Constable at any time.
The Commissioner and Chief Constable will see every report that is submitted to the Committee. The Commissioner and Chief Constable will treat seriously and respond quickly to any issue raised by the Committee.
The intention and expectation is that the above process will lead to a satisfactory outcome of any issues raised by the Committee. If this is not the case the Committee may approach the external auditor, HMIC, IPCC, or the Police and Crime Panel.
